

Trust Management Consultant

Responsibilities

Bristol Avon Rivers Trust (BART) is a recently established charitable organisation dedicated to improvement in all areas of the habitat of the Bristol River Avon.

BART now requires a Trust Management Consultant whose duties will include, but not be limited to:

- marketing BART
- business strategy and development
- development and management of external relationships
- managing resources and volunteers and
- project implementation and support.

Consultancy Conditions

The successful candidate will be engaged as a self-employed consultant and will be required to be available on average 4 to 5 days per week for an initial period of one year which may be extended depending on BART work commitments

Total remuneration will be approximately £1,000 per calendar month.

Personal Requirements

The successful candidate will have extensive experience in marketing and public relations with a proven ability to manage people and projects to a pre-set timescale and budget.

Experience in rural habitat management is preferable but not essential.

Interested candidates should apply to Dr Sid Jevons sid@bristolavonriverstrust.org giving details of relevant experience and providing an up to date Curriculum Vitae.

Closing

Applications received after 23rd August 2013 will not be considered.
